Mr. Speaker, Vincent HoSang's selfless service has continuously demonstrated a level of altruistic dedication that makes him most worthy of our recognition today.

RECOGNIZING THE 84TH BIRTHDAY OF COACH GUY EDWARD PHIPPS

HON. JOHN S. TANNER

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 26, 2006

Mr. TANNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize a man whom I consider to be one of the greatest influences of my early years—a man whose guidance helped change the lives of several generations of young people. I rise today to honor my high school basketball coach, a talented, caring educator and my dear friend, Coach Guy Edward Phipps, who earlier this month celebrated his 84th birthday.

Coach Phipps was born in Hickman, Kentucky, and, after graduating from Hickman High School, served 3 years in the United States Army. Following his honorable discharge, he attended nearby Murray State University while also raising a family; his daughter, now Janice Phipps Jones, was only three years old when Coach Phipps began his college education.

After earning both a Bachelors Degree and a Masters Degree at Murray State University, he began his career as a teacher and basketball coach in Fulton, Kentucky. Four years later, he moved just across the state line to South Fulton, Tennessee, for a new coaching job. Three seasons later, Coach Phipps and his team set school history with an unprecedented 28-0 record in the regular season.

That same year, however, Coach Phipps and the Red Devils were beat in the district tournament by Union City High School in my hometown of Union City, Tennessee. Shortly thereafter, in 1956, Coach Phipps made the professional move 14 miles away to Union City High School to take over the coaching duties with the Union City Golden Tornadoes. Coach Phipps helped lead the team to five consecutive district and regional tournament wins and brought the school to its first-ever state tournament appearance.

In 1959, I joined the Union City High School basketball team as a sophomore and was honored to train under Coach Phipps for three years. His leadership helped teach my teammates and me sportsmanship, teamwork and maturity that have been important to me throughout my life, and I feel confident that my former teammates are as grateful as I am to have had the opportunity in our formative years to work with such an exceptionally talented leader.

Coach Phipps also taught courses in industrial arts and engineering drawing while at Union City High School. He was known in our school district for a special goal he set—to choose a different student every day or every week whom he felt needed a friend and someone to believe in him or her. This approach touched the lives of many students over Coach Phipps' career and is still a tradition among many of the educators in northwest Tennessee.

After a brief time working at a local doctor's clinic, Coach Phipps chose to return to Union City High School, but this time as principal, where he continued to serve for 4 years. Later he served as head basketball coach at David Lipscomb College in Nashville and as dean of students at Nashville Tech.

Mr. Speaker, I hope you and our colleagues will join me in honoring the 84th birthday of a man who has been a hero in Tennessee and Kentucky for generations. The true measure of a successful educator is how many young people's lives he has touched. As one of Coach Phipps' former players and a good friend of his today, I know he meets that test of being a truly successful teacher and coach.

TRIBUTE TO RUTH NAGLER

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 26, 2006

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of the most extraordinary women in the Bay Area, Ruth Nagler. Mrs. Nagler has lived in the 12th District of California for the past 50 plus years and her contributions to the community deserve recognition.

Ruth Nagler was born and raised in New York. Nagler received an undergraduate degree from College of the City of New York in 1943, and subsequently received a Master of Arts in education from New York University in 1945. She and her husband, Edmund, are parents to three children.

Mr. Speaker, after moving to San Mateo Ruth Nagler immediately immersed herself in our community, joining the League of Women Voters of the Mid-Peninsula in 1951, eventually serving as the president of this valuable organization for three years. In addition, Ruth Nagler served for 10 years as a trustee of the San Mateo City Elementary School District Board, where she was a leader and integral component of one of the earliest state school desegregation programs in California, and in our nation. With this background, Ruth Nagler was the perfect choice to become Director of Community Education for Canada College, one of the three colleges of the San Mateo County Community College District. Ruth Nagler left her mark both at Canada College and at the San Mateo County Community College District during the 20 years she worked for the institution. During that time, she initiated, designed, developed and administered non-credit short courses, workshops, conferences and special events for more than 48,000 people.

Mr. Speaker, since retirement Ruth Nagler has remained active in community activities, and in fact her involvement in the community is too long to list here but allow me to highlight a few of the things she has done. She was coordinator of the "San Mateo County 2000" drive for the public school system, she was chair of the Friends of the Advisory Council on Women, a member of the Mills-Peninsula Hospital Board of Trustees, chair of the San Mateo Performing Arts Center Board of Directors, and directed a successful effort to refurbish the High School District's theater.

In addition to these organizations and her continued work with San Mateo League of Women Voters, Ruth Nagler has also selflessly devoted herself to a myriad of community service organizations including; Planned Parenthood, American Association of University Women, United Nations Association, San Mateo County American Cancer Society, San Mateo Parents Cooperative Nursery School, and the San Mateo City Citizens Task Force to Study Needs of Seniors. Mr. Speaker, the wide range of associations with which Ruth Nagler has been involved clearly highlight her commitment to our community.

For her diligent work, she has been duly recognized over the years. Notably, in 2003, she was named "Woman of the Year" by California Assemblyman Gene Mullin. In 1990, Ruth Nagler was the recipient of the Beyond War Foundation award for "helping to build a global community and thereby create a secure and sustainable future for all."

Mr. Speaker, Ruth Nagler is an inspirational leader and we can learn much from her actions, her leadership and her ability to create change. I urge all of my colleagues to join me in tribute to Ruth Nagler for her tireless efforts to better the San Mateo County community and our nation.

CONGRATULATING JUDGE ROBERT C. BROOMFIELD FOR RECEIVING THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA'S DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN AWARD

HON. ED PASTOR

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 26, 2006

Mr. PASTOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Honorable Robert C. Broomfield, Senior United States District Judge and a 1961 graduate of the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law. It was my pleasure to work with Judge Broomfield when I was a County Supervisor, and I always found him to be reasonable, understanding, and well respected by all, whether they be private citizens, elected officials, or his judicial peers. Therefore I was pleased to learn that he was being honored by his alma mater on April 22nd with its Distinguished Citizen Award, and I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank him for many years of service to the nation and the State of Arizona.

Judge Broomfield has served with distinction in the courts for more than 34 years, first as a judge and presiding judge on the Maricopa
